

Information about CMI entrance exam for PhD Physics

There has not been any CMI entrance exam for PhD physics since 2016. The format of the exam will be 10 questions: 2 problems each in classical mechanics, quantum mechanics, electrodynamics, statistical physics and mathematical methods. Each question will be worth 10 marks, for a total of 100 marks.