

1. Consider the decision problem: given a timed automaton \mathcal{A} , does there exist a deterministic timed automaton \mathcal{B} such that $\mathcal{L}(\mathcal{A}) = \mathcal{L}(\mathcal{B})$?

Is this decidable? Justify.